

I am creative and innovative.

I can use my imagination.

I can make decisions.

I can solve problems.

I can work alongside others to achieve a shared goal.

I understand that when I grow up, I will need to earn money to support myself.

I can manage money well.

I can speak clearly and with correct grammar.

I can contribute to class discussions.

I can put my thoughts and opinions across in a respectful way.

I can adapt my speaking or writing according to the audience.

I can talk about my own learning.

I can talk confidently to people who visit our school.

I can write clearly with correct spelling, grammar and punctuation.

I always have a positive attitude towards my work.

I use taught strategies to help me when things are difficult.

I understand that making mistakes helps me to learn.

I can encourage others when they feel like giving up.

I can understand my own feelings and use strategies to regulate them when things go wrong.

I understand how to keep my mind healthy.

I know that taking part in exercise will keep me physically and mentally healthy.

I know that I must clean my teeth regularly to keep me healthy.

I know that it is important to have a healthy balanced diet.

I understand the importance of keeping good personal hygiene.

I can make the right choices when I'm faced with a challenge.

I can show respect for people and things around me.

I help to take care of my school and local community.

I can help other people when they are finding something difficult.

I can make decisions that will positively impact on my school and community.

I will always strive to present myself in the best way.

I can talk about what I would like to be when I grow up.

My work is always presented to the best of my ability.

I know what I need to do to get better and achieve more.

I know my areas of strength and am happy to showcase my skills to others.

I will embrace experiences that will broaden my knowledge about the world around me.